BOYS SURRENDER STOLEN GOODS

Chief of Police Jack Grant has rounded up several of the gang of boys who have been sneaking into stores and houses during the daytime when the attention of the occupants was diverted. Some of the property has been recovered and the only reason for not taking the culprits before the juvenile court is the desire of the chief to complete his case by arresting others who are implicated and securing evidence that will prove their active connection with the thieving that has been under investigation.

PNEUMONIA TAKES YOUNG MAN

Edward Green Jr., 21-year-old son of a well-known Goldfield miner, died Wednesday of pneumonia at the family residence on North Bellevue, Goldfield, following an illness of several days. The young man had been employed for many years in the blacksmith shop of Al. Mills and was of powerful physique. He is survived by his parents, his father now being seriously ill with pneumonia at St. Mary's hospital. The death is particularly sad owing to the fact that Robert Green, a brother of the deceased, was killed a little over a year ago by the accidental discharge of a shotgun.

Little PHILIP MEYER of the Butler Inn is out again after a serious attack of pneumonia.

INSTALLATION OF TURQUOISE CHAPTER ORDER EASTERN STAR

Due to the influenza epidemic and the passing away of two of the oldest and most beloved members, Brother Al. Smith and Brother Wesley Stewart, the initiation of officers of Turquoise Chapter No. 10, Order of the Eastern Star was very quiet. The following poem was composed by Brother Ralph Burdick for the presentation of the past matron's jewel to retiring Matron Sister Lizzie Wardle.

Some time ago a sister true
Asked me to do this thing for you.
In words well chosen, loving too,
Those same old words, forever new.

Together we have walked alone
With ceremony, joy and song,
And memory brings a happy throng
Of thoughts that lead us far from wrong.

The star of Bethlehem has shone
From yonder East and we have known
That not a king upon his throne
Is clothed in glory like its own.

Some nineteen hundred years ago
There came a friend for us to know,
To love and trust, to doubt and dare,
God's messenger to heal our woe.

True friendship has a wonderful ring
It causes us to laugh and sing
And be content with everything
That God is good enough to bring.

Your year of duty now complete
Within the matron's honored seat
Has been with many joys and sorrows
And now with happy hearts we greet.

You, as we bring this love-born gift
With hopes that every cloud will lift
And through the silvery-sandwich rift
His love will warm you as our gift.

The officers for the ensuing year were installed by Sister Lizzie Wardle, assisted by Sister Ida Cochran as marshal. Worthy matron, Adelaide Simmons; worthy patron, Frank Taylor, associate matron, Pauline Tassoni; secretary, Ruby Patterson; treasurer, Amelia May; confidante, Dora Parker; associate confidante, Lillian Leavess; chaplain, Ralph Burdick; marshal, Lizzie Wardle; organist, Evelyn Loring; Ada, Elizabeth Wittenberg; Ruth, Lida Gilbreth; Esther, Maud Albert; Martha, Lizzie Wardle; Electa, Jennie Shughness; warden, Alice Mitchell; son and daughter, I. Tassoni.

CHIEF GRANT SAYS THREAT WAS MADE

"If you don't come through with the news the Times will keep it up," that is the expression used by the hired man of the Alley Whippet when accused by Chief of Police Jack Grant yesterday morning. This is the threat which the employee of the man denies having been used. "Nobody ever said the word blackmail," he employed as that would be an unnecessary to convey the true meaning of the language.

"If you weren't crippled I'd wipe you the sidewalk with you," was the way the chief retorted, with contempt in every word. There was no reference to "cut that stuff out or you'll lose another wing."

Neither did the scribe tell Grant that "When you start in you'd better make a good job of it."

The community, outside of the Piedreamer's journal office, approves the course of the chief who showed wonderful self control under the circumstances.

This afternoon a warrant was issued from the justice court charging Jack Grant with assault and battery. The warrant was served by Under-sheriff Slavin and Justice Grier released the defendant on his own recognizance. The case is set for tomorrow afternoon.

PATIENT BROUGHT TO COUNTY HOSPITAL

William Perogo, aged 74 years, was brought to the Nye county hospital this morning from the Johnnie mine at the extreme edge of the southern extremity of the county. He came by way of Death Valley Junction and is suffering from a bad case of Bright's disease for which he used red peppers to reduce a swelling in his right leg. The treatment superinduced an inflammation that caused the patient intense agony. The limbs are blackened and it is apprehended that gangrene may set in at any time. Perogo has been two years in this county and three years in Nevada, coming from the east. He is a carpenter by trade.
